1. In May the North Korean Labor Party planned to bring KIM Kyu-sik into North Korea from Harbin for propaganda purposes. KIM refused on the grounds of ill health. Included in the plan was AN Chae-hong, former civil administrator under USAMGIK.
2. New special citizenship cards in P'yongyang are available only to old men, females, and Party members. Cards are not being issued to the other residents because they are to be conscripted shortly.
